SPONSORSHIP PACKAGE

ABOUT THE EVENT

English for New Bostonians' 12th Annual Raising Our Voices Breakfast celebrates the business leaders, policymakers, community leaders and students invested in Massachusetts' movement for ESOL and workforce development.

Sponsors are invited to meet the most influential stakeholders from business and public leadership as they celebrate alongside immigrant parents, workers and small business owners.

We are thrilled to announce that the Honorable Linda Dorcena Forry of the Dorchester Reporter will serve as our MC. This year, we will honor Attorney General Andrea Campbell with the Agent of Change Award and Mia Mends, CEO of C&W Services, with the Business Leadership Award.

More detail about the program this year will be available soon on our website.

ABOUT ENGLISH FOR NEW BOSTONIANS

English for New Bostonians (ENB) has been a partner for the City of Boston and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for 24 years, delivering vital workforce development and ESOL programs for businesses and the community. Our high-quality ESOL programs are built on best-in-class research, training instructors and providing professional development with cutting-edge methodologies and technology.

For over two decades, our steadfast 4-pronged approach—Invest, Innovate, Lead, and Advocate—has created a ripple effect across Boston. We invest in grassroots ESOL providers through programs like ESOL Pathways, ESOL for Parents & Caregivers, English for Immigrant Entrepreneurs, and Immigrant Economic Resilience. Our innovation comes from pivoting new initiatives to strengthen the sector. We lead by preparing former ESOL students to become teachers through TESOL trainings, and our English Works Business Council elevates a crucial business voice on immigrant workforce issues, promoting ESOL as part of workplace equity. At every level, ENB continues to advocate fiercely for our immigrant workforce and the economic vitality of our communities.
